Consul of the United States at Bremen.

Sworn to before me this 10th day of March 1901 at Bremen Germany.

Master.

I, Dr. J. G. Gieseler, Master of the S.S. H. H. MEIER, from Bremen do solemnly and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing List or Manifest and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sitting therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is afflicted with any contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the laws. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List or Manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

A detailed line drawing of a mechanical assembly, likely a pump or engine component. The drawing shows a complex arrangement of parts, including a central shaft, various housing components, and a base. Labels with letters and numbers are placed around the drawing to identify specific parts. The drawing is oriented horizontally and appears to be a technical illustration from a manual or catalog.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.
 I, James William Denig Master of the S.S. Frederick do hereby certify that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing List and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, William Denig, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List or Manifest, concerning each of said passengers named thereon is correct and true.

Master,

stincerely and truly believe that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on Bremen from Laisez Wilhelm der Grosse and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing herewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List or Manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

Consul of the United States at Bremen.

Sworn to before me this 15th day of December 1907
Henry A. Lindner
Master.

Master.

I, H. A. Lindner, Master of the S.S. Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse from Bremen do solemnly swear that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing herewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous, contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list or Manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

Affidavit of Surgeon.

I, Dr. C. W. Meyer, Surgeon of the S.S. Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse solemnly, sincerely and truly swear that I have had seven years experience as a physician and surgeon and that I am entitled to practice as such by and under the authority of the University of Munich and the Imperial Medical State Board of Germany and that I have made a personal examination of each of the passengers named herein, and that the foregoing list or Manifest, bearing names of passengers, is according to the best of my knowledge and belief, full, correct and true in all particulars, relative to the mental and physical condition of such passengers.

(Consul of the United States at Bremen.)

truly and sincerely that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing list or manifest and that I have caused the Surgeon of said passenger, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list or manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

Witness my hand and the seal of my office, this 11th day of May, 1906.

Office of the United States at Bremen.

Master.

I sincerely and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing list of Manifest and have ascertained that I have made a personal examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous, contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or infamy in the United States, except such as are expressly exempted under the law. And that each, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said list of Manifest, concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

Witness my hand and the seal of the S.S. László Wilhelm von Grossa from Bremen do solemnly
